

2010 INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Are you interested in politics? Want to help bring about progressive change?
Want to gain real world experience? Want to strengthen your resume?

Then the Mark Falzone for State Rep internship is the perfect opportunity for you!
Come join an exciting progressive grassroots campaign where you can make a real change locally.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Interns entering into this program should expect to work hard and have fun, as well as develop a sense of positively impacting the growth and excellence of the city of Lynn, Lynnfield, Saugus, and Wakefield. All interns will be expected to participate in general office management, but the most important job any intern with this program has is to identify potential voters who support Representative Mark Falzone's efforts to bring about positive change for 9th Essex district by making phone calls, distributing literature, and going door-to-door. In addition, interns are encouraged to attend campaign events, help draft campaign literature, and form connections with the community. Growth opportunities are available for outstanding interns.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Some prior campaign experience is helpful but not required. You do not need to be a resident of the district to qualify.

ABOUT REPRESENTATIVE MARK FALZONE- A PROGRESSIVE LEADER:

During his tenure in the legislature, Representative Falzone has been a leader on progressive social issues that have placed Massachusetts at the forefront of our nation. He has taken strong stances on education including making higher education more affordable. Also, he is a great friend of our environment leading various initiatives spanning from Lake clean-up and bike path creation to supporting the green technology economy. ## ABOUT OUR CAMPAIGN – A GREAT TRAINING GROUND IN POLITICS:

Individuals participating in local politics can expect to meet many local elected officials as well as individuals who live in the district who are closely involved with state and federal politics. With a district population of approximately 40,000 individuals, political campaigns for district-wide elected office are large and significant efforts involving many staff and volunteers who are tasked with coordinating complex field, communications and policy efforts. You will be joining an exciting effort to elect one of the best state legislators in our nation.

Term: Current to November 2, 2010
